DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house is believed to have been the home of the man who operated the mill at the head of Whitehall Creek. The mill is marked on the 1860 county map as owned by John Boon. His residence was across the road in the approximate location of this house. The name T.C. Boone appears in the same location on the 1878 county map.

The house has been altered in recent years. It was enlarged and renovated by the father of the present owner in the early 20th century. Though the frame of part of the house may date from the early 19th century, little else remains of the original fabric of the house.
